BUV Diversity Dialogue Fora press release

“Entry into the German labor market and start-ups”

About the MAX project

MAX (Maximising Migrants' Contribution to Society) is an AMIF-funded project that aims to change the public's attitudes towards migrants. The public image of migrants in Europe is to be improved by changing the narrative of the immigration discourse and by bringing the stories of real people to the forefront.

About the BUV Diversity Dialogue Fora “Entry into the German labor market and start-ups” (Einstieg in den deutschen Arbeitsmarkt und Existenzgründung)

With our local online DDF (Diversity Dialogue Fora) we would like to offer participants the opportunity to meet a pool of different speakers, entrepreneurs, advisor and specialists who will guide you through the German job market to give you detailed information about its challenges, opportunities and some useful tips. Plus, there will also be a focus on start ups. In addition, the participants will have the opportunity to learn from practical examples and experiences.

The event will take place online at 8:00 p.m. on June 9th, 2021.
